

The converse/inverse of a relation is the relation s.t. if $aRb, bR^{-1}a$. Any symmetric relation is its own inverse, and any relation that is its own inverse is symmetric.
We also like using composite relations, apparently.